FR. INOCENCIO LLAMAS

"Dear children! You are my strength. You, my apostles, who with your love, humility and silence of prayer are making it possible for one to come to know my Son. You live in me. You carry me in your heart. You know that you have a mother who loves you and who has come to bring love. I am looking at you in the Heavenly Father - your thoughts, your pains, your sufferings - and I offer them to my Son. Do not be afraid and do not lose hope, because my Son listens to his mother. Since he was born he loves and I desire for all of my children to come to know that love. I desire that all those who left him because of their pain and misunderstanding may return to him and that all those who have never known him may come to know him. That is why you are here, my apostles, and I as a mother am with you. Pray for the firmness of faith, because love and mercy come from firm faith. Through love and mercy you will help all those who are not aware that they are choosing darkness instead of light. Pray for your shepherds because they are the strength of the Church which my Son left to you. Through my Son, they are the shepherds of souls. Thank you. "

How is it that we are the strength of the Virgin?

Because She needs collaborators, instruments, apostles. She has repeated this many times in her messages. Without us, not Her, not even God, can do anything because they respect our freedom. And even though God can do everything and the Virgin is the Suppliant Omnipotence, they want to call us to collaborate, they count on our "yes"; as St. Augustine said: "God that created you without you, is not going to save you without you"

We are the strength when being apostles that live the messages with humility, that pray and carry their love, that transmit to others the knowing of Jesus and His Gospel. Jesus told us to remain in His Love. Now, the Gospa tells us that we live in Her and She in our hearts (of course with Jesus). The Mother sees us in the Heavenly Father. She works always as the favored daughter of the Father. She is in the Father, She sees us from the Father and in Him. In fact what we are and have comes from the Father, and all belongs to Him.

The Queen of Peace, as is her Son, is not indifferent to our sufferings and pains. She is our Mater Dolorosa that presents our trials and problems to Jesus, with the efficacy of Her motherly intercession and Jesus listens to Her. Let us place in Her our trust. She is our life, sweetness and hope.

Some doubt the love of Jesus and in difficult times they blame God and stray away from Him. The Queen of Peace wants that all those who have strayed away, to return to God and believe in His Love, for them to know and experience that Love. She also prays and asks us to pray for those who have yet to experience the Love of the Lord.

We are now here, with the Virgin, and She is now here with us. Therefore:

Courage always. Nothing to fear. Perseverance.

Let us remember her most repeated message: Prayer and a string faith, because from them is where Love and Mercy come from. Trust is the vessel with which we receive the Merciful Love, and the size of the vessel shall determine the blessing. Our faith must be large, so as to obtain Mercy in abundance, not just for us, but for those who are not conscious of this and choose darkness.

Once again She asks: "Pray for the shepherds". That intention should always be in the forefront. If there are good, holy and sufficient shepherds, there will be growth and life in abundance.
