

COMMENTS TO THE MESSAGE OF FEBRUARY 25, 2014

MESSAGE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY QUEEN OF PEACE ON FEB.25, 2014 AT MEDJUGORJE AND REFLECTION BY FR. FRANCISCO ANGEL VERAR HERNANDEZ

“My dear Children: See, hear and feel what is in the hearts of many people where God is absent; they do not want Him, because they are away from prayer and do not have peace. You, my dear children, pray, live the Commandments of God. You be the prayer, you that from the very beginning have said “yes” to my call. Be witnesses of God and my presence, and do not forget my dear children, that I am with you and I love you. Day by day I give you to my Son Jesus. Thank you for having answered my call”

As a common rule, in the messages of the 25th day of each month, the Blessed Virgin says at the start: “My dear children, today also...” However, this month she has said something else: “My dear children: See, hear and feel what is in the hearts of many people where God is absent...” What this means is, that the Mother, before giving us a new message, this time she makes us realize that she knows our thoughts, wishes and actions towards others. In this way, not only does she invites us to live her specific messages, but also she wants it known that she knows us all and she knows what we think as it pertains to the behavior of others in matters of faith.

Let us see, that at the beginning of this message, she mentions what has gone through our minds many times regarding the behavior of those around us, But, what is most interesting is, that besides quoting literally what we have thought, she clarifies the situation of the people and the reasons as to why many stray away from God; why so many do not want to know about Him. And the reason that the Virgin enunciates, is that those who do not have God in their hearts is because they do not pray and therefore, they do not have peace either. This is very interesting: the Mother shows us the aridity in which many souls are found, and the reasons for this aridness. And with that she also warns us so this does not happen to us. Besides, she wants us to help those who are away from God with our prayers and the testimony of our lives.

I believe it would be a grave mistake to judge the atheist, agnostic and indifferent thoughts that many have about God. So much so, that not even the Mother condemns them. Therefore, we cannot do it either, because no atheists nor agnostics are condemned; they have time before they die, to change course and accept God in their lives. Keep in mind that atheists, agnostics, irreverent or indifferent to God, we, must only love them, give them warmth and tenderness, and we must pray for them, since they stray away from God, thus they have no peace, and if they lack something that is essential to social and human coexistence, they will not be happy either. Then, in this beautiful message the Mother watches over them and for our relationship with them. And she tells us: “You, my dear children, pray, live the Commandments of God. You be prayer, you that from the very beginning have said “yes” to my call”. Then in this message – observe well- , the Mother does not call the atheists or agnostics to conversion, but rather she calls the believers: to be a light for and in them. In other words, the sons and daughters of the Blessed Virgin are not to be concerned with the faith of those around them, but rather take the light to them. See that the Blessed Mother does not say: < that those who do not believe in God, be converted>- as at the beginning of her apparitions she once said-, but rather: < You, my dear children, pray, live the Commandments of God, You be prayer, you that from the very beginning have said “yes” to my call.> Since the conversion of the atheists, agnostics, indifferent, of the stray....depends on us. If we pray as we should and try hard to live the Commandments of God, the others will change. The Mother assures it. Then, we must ask God at the beginning of this Lenten period, the gift of incessantly pray with the heart, and responsibly live the Commandments of God. Remember that during the 2012-2013 Christmas, when the Child Jesus spoke to us in the arms of Mary, He precisely said: <live My Commandments>.

Also, this month's message tells us something else about it: <Be witnesses of God and My Presence, and do not forget my dear children, that I am with you and I love you.> Remember that the Virgin has said that in order to give testimony of God, we must pray and to also give testimony of her presence we must also pray. Then, everything depends on prayer. I have asked myself many times, why is it that in thirty years the Virgin invites us so much to prayer if She could talk about other things? And the only answer that comes to mind, is that people do not pray as we should and because of that, the Mother must go on with the same invitation, since if people responded as we should to prayer, surely She will speak of other things and She would ask for others, but She insists on the subject of prayer because this is first and foremost, and it is also where we fail the most. We can all make mistakes, but the Mother cannot be mistaken in what she asks of us. Then, the message appears very clear, that those who pray and live the commandments can be witnesses of God and of the presence of the Virgin.

The Mother has also said: < I am with you and I love you. Day by day I give you to my Son Jesus.> This last part of the message has to do with the relationship that the Virgin has with each one of her children. Remember she is always with us, probably, because some, when facing the difficulties that suffer become despaired, discouraged, depressed. That is why the Mother reminds us that she never abandons anybody. Saying: <I am with you and I love you; day by day I give you to my Son Jesus > is like saying, < do not think that before the difficulties you face, I have abandoned you, NO. <I am with you, and I love you; day by day I give you to my Son Jesus> <Trust in me, open yourselves to me that I present you to Jesus each day>. On the other hand, with the words of this month, the Mother also expects that her children do not stop loving her, that they do not stop in opening their hearts to her, and that with complete trust, give yourselves completely to her maternal intercession.

Let us pray:

Jesus: I bless You and give You infinite thanks for the gift of Your Mother amongst us, She in a short while, will have 33 years of visiting us every day and speak to us frequently. I do not want to be indifferent to her messages, on the contrary: I want to collaborate with my conversion and the conversion of those who are indifferent. That is why, today, once more I open to you the doors of my heart. Jesus: at the beginning of this Lenten season, come and visit my heart, now that Your Holy Mother invites me once again to prayer, now that Your Mother invites me to give You the first place in my life.

Lord: there are many atheists, agnostics and indifferent in the world. I do not want to be one of them. On the contrary: I want to be light and salt, I want to give example; I want to render witness just as Your Mother indicates me. Jesus: grant me now the gift of prayer with the heart. You that can do everything, come and visit my heart; a heart that many times has been away from You, indifferent to You. That is why today, once more I surrender to You. I place my life in Your hands, do what you want of me, as long as Your will is done in me and in all of your creatures, I wish nothing else, Jesus.

Jesus: Come and heal my resentful heart, hurt, humiliated by the mistreatments and indifference of so many people around me. For the disappointments and the failures that I have received in my life. Lord Jesus, if You do not rebuild with Your power my life, I will not be able to pray for others, I could not give a beautiful testimony of Your love. That is why I want You to please heal me today, and I know You can do so. Come and help me! Come and visit my heart so that You have always the first place in it.

I also place in Your hands all of my bodily diseases. Forgive me for thinking that You could not heal me and instead placing my trust in the doctors, the medicines and the therapies completely forgetting Your healing power. I know that You can do everything, that You are above human power and earthly science. Jesus I know that You are alive and that are present here with me. Come and lay Your blessed and healing hands in my body and heal me by Your love and by the power of Your bleeding and glorified wounds. Jesus: do not go by me without blessing me. You have said: <Ask and you shall receive, search and you shall find, knock and the door will open>. Today Jesus I ask that You heal me, bless me and anoint me with Your Holy Spirit and give me health, to serve You in Your Church and also to be a witness of Your healing power.

Mary: You are the Queen of the Evangelization and the Queen of my heart, thank you because every day you pray for me and intercede for this poor sinner before Your Son JESUS, I take you again as my Mother, come and you too visit my heart. Thank you Mother for loving me so much: for praying for me before Your Son. I do not want to waste the prayers that you do before the throne of God for my conversion and my spiritual and physical health.

Thank You, Queen of Peace and give me Your peace!

Blessed be Your purity, and eternally will be.....
