

From the of Sr. Emmanuel Maillard

Medjugorje, December 12, 2015

Our Lady of Guadalupe, patron saint of America. (See PS1)

Dear Children of Medjugorje, Praised be Jesus and Mary!

1. On 2 December 2015, Mirjana received her monthly apparition at the Blue Cross, in front of a small crowd, as we are now in the winter months. After the apparition, Mirjana conveyed the following message:

"Dear children, I am always with you because my Son entrusted you to me. And you, my children, you need me, you are seeking me, you are coming to me, and you are bringing joy to my motherly heart. I have, and always will have, love for you; for you who suffer and who offer your pains and sufferings to my Son and to me. My love seeks the love of all of my children, and my children seek my love. Through love, Jesus seeks unity between Heaven and earth; between the Heavenly Father and you, my children - His Church. Therefore, it is necessary to pray much, to pray and love the Church to which you belong. Now, the Church is suffering and needs apostles who by loving unity, by witnessing and giving, show the ways of God. The Church needs apostles who by living the Eucharist with the heart, do great works; it needs you, my apostles of love. My children, from the very beginning, the Church was persecuted and betrayed, but day by day it grew. It is indestructible because My Son gave it a heart - the Eucharist, and the light of His resurrection shone and will continue to shine upon it. Therefore, do not be afraid. Pray for your shepherds that they may have the strength and the love to be bridges of salvation. Thank you!"

2. How About The Pope?

Meditating on the call of the Blessed Mother to pray and love the Church to which we belong, one of us asked the Lord in prayer: What can I do to better pray for the Church and the Pope? After this prayer, he began to read the Diary of Sr. Faustina, and came across precisely these words spoken by Jesus to the saint: "Make a Novena for the Holy Father's intention. It should consist of 33 acts, that is, repetition that many times of the short prayer - which I have taught you - to the Divine Mercy," (§341 of the Diary).

Now this prayer Jesus is speaking about is the one that He had already recommended to the Saint, by which we invoke the blood and water represented by the rays gushing from the Heart of Jesus, hence its great power. This river of blessings has flowed for 2,000 years for our salvation, and will keep flowing into eternity: "O blood and water which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in you!" (Diary, §84). This prayer never ceases to move the heart of the Father in our favor.

Our Pope Francis is in great need of our prayer, considering the very delicate situation of the Church today; so let's not hold back this gift for him, especially in this Jubilee Year of Mercy that he gave to us all.

3. Believing the unbelievable

Last month, I was in East Malaysia to convey Our Lady's messages. Near the city of Kota Kinabalu, one of the priests who invited me told me about the extraordinary experiences he has had with the Child Jesus in his parish since 2013. Because Christmas is fast approaching, his testimony can only help us worship more fervently the God Child, who has made Himself so near, so accessible, so tangible.

Father Nick has a heart of a real shepherd, focusing on the good he can provide his sheep with! He fell in love with the Child Jesus. He was offered a beautiful statue of the Newborn and it dawned on him to pass it around from family to family throughout the year. His goal was to allow the Holy Child to be born in the hearts of these families. There, most of the families are still united and have many children. From the very first weeks, blessings and miracles began to happen! So many families wanted the Child in their homes that they could only keep it one hour before having to let it go. In fact, in His great love, the Child granted these families wonder upon wonder. Several examples struck me:

- From Laurence Imbungan: "My granddaughter Jaklyne, 2 years old, was suffering from a serious lung infection. Since her health wasn't getting any better, she had to go to the hospital. The day before she had to leave, our home was the first one in the village of Tuaran to welcome the Child Jesus. The atmosphere was joyful: traditional songs and music could be heard. Jaklyne kept on asking for a doll, but was never satisfied with the ones she was given. However, when the Child Jesus arrived in our home, she expressed great joy, as if she had finally found what she yearned for. When we placed the Child Jesus on our small altar and began to pray, she started vomiting profusely and what came out of her mouth was horrible! The next day, at the hospital, the doctor examined her and declared that the infection had disappeared from her lungs. Since that day, in my family, we remember the Child Jesus and how he brought us healing. We give thanks to God!"

- From Molin, village of Tangilan: "My desire was to see in a home 3 families who rejected God and did not go to church, to be touched by the Child Jesus. Their place was so poor that they were ashamed to welcome anyone in there, especially since the rain would drip into the house through the roof. But seeing the enthusiasm of the people who greeted the Child, these families also accepted His visit. They prayed for quite a while with Him, and God granted their prayer: the government gave them a new house.

-In another village, a young boy was lying on a bed, completely paralyzed. When the statue of the Child Jesus arrived in his house, his eyes opened wide with joy, he suddenly straightened out as if to go hug Him, and he was cured of his paralysis! Now he lives a normal life.

-A couple had not been going to church for many years, especially the man who intended to express his atheism for all to hear. They were offered the visit of the Child, and they agreed without knowing why. When the man received the statue in his arms a little reluctantly, he heard the Child talk to him and tell him, "So, now, do you believe?" He burst into tears, and has since then, with his wife, become a staunch pillar of his parish.

-A simple woman, a housewife and mother, received the Child in her home. She wanted to treat it like a normal baby and began to wash it. After the bath, she noticed that the skin of the Child "smelled like a baby" as if it were alive. Sometimes He would blink His eye, smile and moved His tiny hands...

It would take too long to tell all the stories I heard there. But what touched me the most was the simple faith of these villagers, and the sincere way in which they worship God. Father Nick has composed a special liturgy dedicated to the Baby's arrival in the homes, with words of welcome, hymns, etc. The spiritual fruit is abundant: joy is restored in the homes, mutual forgiveness and reconciliations happen, love is rekindled among family members, people return to the sacraments, especially to confession... Children and young people especially are moved, they put their whole hearts into helping the pilgrim statue of Jesus to enter villages and homes in their area.

And what about us, in our Western world that is so materialistic, anxious and often so sad, what are we going to do to welcome Baby Jesus at Christmas? (See PS4). He comes loaded with gifts and blessings, and we need them so much! What joy to give Him the place of honor! His innocence is the best weapon against the evil which eats up our families from inside, Satan is so afraid of it! "I am your peace. Live my commandments," He said on Christmas 2012, while appearing as a newborn in the arms of His mother. True peace, lasting peace, solid peace won't be found outside of Him!

4. My Mom, Odile

Last month I spoke about the consecration of death. I did not know at that time that my sweet mother Odile was to be born into heaven. I found out through my brother that she was having trouble breathing, and because I was in China at that time, I asked Fr. Slavko (whom she loved so much) to come and pick her up as soon as possible; she was already 94 years old. So my mother went up to the Heavenly Father in great peace, on November 24, the same day that Fr. Slavko was born into Heaven, in 2000. Then, this is what I realized: one should not say that we have "lost" someone. We don't "lose" anyone, there is no loss here! Our loved ones enter into their eternity where not only do they await us, but where they work for us as never before, enriched by the very love of God for us. Where is the loss? On the contrary, it is a new kind of relationship that is established between Heaven and Earth, even if the person is in purgatory for a while (See PS3). Vicka, who saw life after death with Jakov in 1981, is radiant when someone dies, whether young or old. She told me, "If people knew how good God is, they would never fear death." By the way, I would like to warmly thank all those who prayed for my mum, or who had a mass celebrated for her. May they be blessed!

P.S. 1. The image of Our Lady seen on the Tilma

is a constant miracle! Recently, a musician from Florida found out that he could capture on his computer the music expressed by the position of the stars visible on Mary's mantel. A Heavenly melody, indeed! (These stars also give the exact image of the sky of that day, but as seen from above, not from the earth). See

P.S. 2. Don't forget to pick your saint for the New

Year 2016, either at your family celebration on Christmas or at the get-together of the New Year!

You'll find the explanation and the list of saints on our website

www.childrenofmedjugorje.com

P.S. 3. It is during the night of Christmas that the largest group of Poor Souls go to Heaven, more than on All Saints day. Let us not forget them in our family celebrations! They will intercede for us in return.

P.S. 4. Our Lady invites us to build up our manger as soon as the Advent starts so that we may expect Baby Jesus in a better way. Here is an idea for the children: May they lay many little pieces of straw in the crib of Baby Jesus (or bits of paper), preparing in this way a bed of love for Him. Each piece of straw would carry a prayer or a sacrifice that they offered. On each little paper, let them write which sacrifice or prayer they made.

P.S. 5. Watch our short video!
